to them The practical difficulties that are in the way of the entertainment of temporary employees is fully set forth in the notes of the Financial secretary in page 6 of Banking file 28-11 dealing with the subject of the extension of the benefits of State Insurance to the temporary employees of the P W D & likely to be met with on the proposal are cases have been put over by Mr Satyaraja chetti in his proposal to the committee

2) The proposal in brief is

a) to extend insurance to such of the Press men as are employed not casually but as a member of a fund established agreeably to the condition laid in art 257 (1) Ch. S. Regulation for qualifying Insurers

b) to fix the minimum premia payable to Rs

3) It is however not definitely mentioned whether insurance is to be optional or compulsory for

No. FL. 1714-6—B. 50-13-2, DATED BANGALORE, 22ND OCTOBER 1914.

ORDER THEREON.—The men of the Piece-work establishment of the Government Press applied to the Insurance Committee to admit them to the benefits of State Life Insurance. They base their claim on the analogy of the admission of the temporary employees of the Public Works Department under Government Order No. Fl. 2876-9—B. 25-11-2, dated 14th November 1912. The Committee are unanimously of opinion that the men deserve the concession they pray for and consider it a good sign they ask for it. They accordingly recommend that such of them as are employed not casually but as members of a fixed establishment agreeably to the first of the two conditions laid down in Article 257 of the Mysore Service Regulations for giving them a claim to pension, may be admitted to the benefits of Insurance. As the wages of these men vary each month it is also recommended that the minimum premium payable by them be fixed at Re. 1 for the purpose of Rule 7.

2. Government are pleased to approve the recommendation of the Committee as above and sanction the admission of such of the Piece-work employees of the Press to the benefits of State Life Insurance as possess the qualification required in Article 257 (1), Mysore Service Regulations. Insurance will be compulsory in the case of all men whose qualifying service exceeds five years and optional in the case of others.
